Of Marley, 83, Dies

Mrs. Josephine R. Peterson died Sunday, April 19 following a lingering illness, at the age of 83 years and 5 months. She was born November 21, 1869, at Plattville, Ill. one of the 12 children of the late Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Naden. On March 23, 1892, she was united in marriage with George B. Peterson at Plattville. They resided in their farm home there until 1935 when they moved north of Marley.

She was a member of the Marley Community church and the Ladies Auxiliary of the William Martin Post of Mokena.

Mrs. Peterson was preceded in death by two daughters Mrs. Fern Murley and Mrs. Verda Wheeler. Surviving are her husband, two sons, Glenn of Marley and Dale of Chicago; three grandchildren, Mrs. Virginia Sasse of Marley, A2c Wayne Peterson of Lumberton, N. J. and Robert Peterson of Chicago; two great-grandchildren, Cheryl Sasse and Laura Sue Peterson; and three brothers, Phillip of Onawa, Ia., Ernest of Burbank Calif. and George of Oklahoma City, Okla.

Mokena PTA
To Give Potluck, Square Dance

The Mokena PTA will sponsor their annual potluck family dinner in the school Tuesday, April 28. The dinner will be served promptly at 6:30 o'clock, and everyone in the community is invited to come with their family. Each one is requested to bring a dish to pass and their own bread and butter, cup, plate, silverware and napkins. The PTA will furnish coffee, and pop for the children.

A change has been made in the entertainment to follow, which will be a square dance. It will start at 7:30, and all teen agers, especially, are invited to attend the dance, as well as the potluck. There will be no admission charge, and no charge for the dance.

The Mokena Civic Association is paying to have an A-1 caller, who is very well known in the Palos area, and who will be in charge of the square dance.

There will be a nursery to take care of the small children during the square dance, for the convenience of parents.

If this dance is well attended and there are indications that the people want these square dances to be continued, the PTA will sponsor them regularly.

Her veil was of chantilly lace cloche attached to French illusion. She carried a white Bible with a white orchid on it, encircled with Stephanotis on white ribbon streamers that fell from the Bible. She wore a pearl necklace, a gift from the groom.

LAUNCH DRIVE FOR ST. MARY'S
PARISH SCHOOL

The official opening of St. Mary's School building fund drive in Mokena took place Saturday evening, in the parish hall.

The general meeting and get-together was a huge success, Committee chairman William Weber and his associates reporting that pledges for approximately one-third of the $15,000 first year goal have been obtained. Absolute sincerity is the keynote of all pledges, and contributions are invited from all of St. Mary's friends and well-wishers. All checks should be made payable to "St. Mary's School Bldg. Fund" and any pledges or contributions may be sent to Richard Montezon, treasurer, in Mokena.

Following an interesting report from Mr. Weber, Arthur Marshall as master of ceremonies introduced Father Frieri, pastor and speaker of the evening. As the result of much rapid growth in the parish within the last few years, there are at present over 100 families in St. Mary's, in Mokena and its surrounding areas. A great deal of credit for this growth, which is reflected as well in the community in general, is due to the existence of St. Mary's school.

The Sisters of St. Francis are installed as the teaching faculty, with Sister M. Charlotte superior. The nuns are doing an admirable job, but it is necessary that they be provided with the proper facilities. Anticipating (continued to back page)

Install Officers Of Mokena VFW
Post and Aux.

A most pleasant afternoon was enjoyed by more than 200 people when the officers of the Wm. Martin VFW Post 725 and their Auxiliary were installed in their hall in Mokena Sunday afternoon. The Auxiliary officers were the first to be installed, with Mrs. Marie Bartelt of Elmwood Park, the installing officer. Mrs. Maude Larson served very efficiently as Officer of the Day, escorting each one to their place at the altar for their oath. Mrs. Glen Peterson, presiding at the piano, furnished the music for the occasion.

The color bearers were escorted at the opening of the program to their proper positions, where they placed flags of the United States, and their banners of the Post and the Auxiliary. The women presented a beautiful ritual without a hitch anywhere.

Following the installation, all officers were escorted to their places after which Mrs. Mildred McMillan, the new president, was presented the gavel. The outgoing president, Mrs. Anita Harr, thanked all officers for their friendly cooperation which had helped make her term of office successful. She presented all the officers who had served (continued to back page)

Elmhurst College Chapel Choir to

For Mokena Park
Makes Good Report

The first team in the drive for funds for the Mokena-area park and outdoor center, W. A. Muehler and Gerald Nelson, reported favorably on their assignment. They called on 19 families and did not meet with a single refusal. Some of the people they called on were unable to pay the money at the time, but requested the men to call at some specified date, when they hoped to have the money.

It seemed to be the general idea among those canvassed that they would rather give the cash than make a pledge. An outstanding instance was that of a man and wife with no children, who contributed $30 as the requested minimum of each family in this area.

The other teams will be getting their canvass of the village underway soon. The drive for funds for this park will continue until May 1.

STORE HOUR CHANGE

Beginning May 1 the grocery stores and meat markets in Mokena will be open Friday nights until 8:30. They will close after May 1 on Saturday night at 6 o'clock.

Squirrel Bites
Two School Girls; Trapped by Mother

A gray squirrel that has developed quite a reputation in Mokena for attacking people bit Martha Jo Doyle of Mokena, a sophomore at Joliet Township high school, last Friday morning. Miss Doyle sustained a wound one half inch deep and one and one-half inches long in the calf of the leg. Another sophomore of JTHS, Nancy Scheiblich, also of Mokena, was attacked shortly after the attack on Miss Doyle. Both girls were walking thru an alley on their way to a Rock Island train for Joliet. Miss Scheiblich received a scratch in the calf. Neither girl saw the squirrel, as it came from in back of them.

It was necessary for both girls to receive anti-rabies treatment at the Hedges clinic, Frankfort which was discontinued, at least temporarily, after it was learned that Mrs. Martha Doyle had succeeded in capturing the squirrel. She did this with a trap of her own design and manufacture and will keep the squirrel under observation for several days, as advised by Dr. L. L. Fatheree, Will county health officer.

All squirrels look more or less alike, but there can be no mistake in the identity of this particular rodent because part of the tail is missing, and this squirrel has patches on his back unlike any other squirrel in the neighborhood, Mrs. Doyle said. She furthermore reports that this same squirrel has attacked about 10 other people in an eight or ten-month period. The attacks are made without provocation.

Mrs. Doyle says that when the squirrel was first confined in its wooden cage it began gnawing through, and would soon have escaped, but some wire mesh put an end to all hopes of escape.

Doris Schifler, of Marley, Takes Vows
With John Erdmann

Miss Doris Evelyn Schifler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Schifler of Marley was united in marriage to John Robert Erdmann, son of Mrs. Sadie Erdmann of Frankfort, Saturday April 11. The wedding took place at 7 p.m. in the Methodist church in Frankfort with Rev. David Munson officiating. Mrs. Munson was the organist. A candle light service was held and palms and spring flowers decorated the church.

The bride's sister, Miss Jean Schifler was the maid of honor. Bridesmaids were both sisters of the bride, Mrs. Neva Heath and Mrs. Wilma Wise.

Lester Erdmann, brother of the groom was the best man. Ushers were Carl and Ramon Schifler, brothers of the bride. The flower girl was Darlene Kokal and the ring bearer was Lloyd Mark.

The bride wore a gown of net over white satin with a train and carried a bouquet of red roses. The bridesmaids and the maid of honor were dressed alike wearing green taffeta and carried bouquets of yellow carnations.

The mother of the bride wore brown taffeta and beige accessories. The groom's mother wore a navy suit. Both wore corsages of yellow carnations.

A reception was held at Mokena in the VFW hall with 200 people attending. Out of town guests were from Detroit, Mich. and Palatine.

After a week's honeymoon trip to Washington D. C. and other points of interest in the Eastern states, the young couple are residing in an apartment on the Glen Schifler farm north of Marley.

The bride is employed at the Mutual Trust company in Chicago and the groom is employed at the Diesel plant in LaGrange.

Mokena Heifer

The two-year old heifer, "Duchess Heio Osbornedale" belonging to Louis and Wilbert Lauffer, of Mokena, has been selected by the sales committee for the 1953 spring sale of the Illinois Holstein Friesian Assn. This sale will be held Saturday, April 25 at Lindendale Park, Highland, Ill. The association picked up this heifer Sunday and moved it to where they will prepare it for the sale.

Despite a tricky attempt on the part of some person or persons to throw a monkey wrench into the Mokena election, by means of letters and circulars sent through the mails and stuck under doorways Monday and Tuesday morning, the Independent Ticket No. 1 was voted in with flying colors. It was a clean sweep. The ticket won by a ratio of more than 6 to 1.

When the final votes were counted there were 382 votes cast with 277 straight Independent No. 1 votes. The election was a clear mandate from the voters of Mokena, and reflected public disapproval of the underhanded means that was taken by certain persons who had gotten out this last minute letter and circular.

On this circular, the source of which was not revealed, as it was unsigned the name of Roy Kropp appeared as a write-in candidate for the office of village president. Mr. Kropp had not consented to this, had not been consulted on the subject, and was taken by complete surprise when informed of it. He took immediate steps to disavow his candidacy and to express his disapproval of anyone having used his name for such a purpose without his consent, and to correct the falsification by a radio broadcast over WJOL, by telephone, and by an article in the Joliet Herald-News. Others mentioned on the write-in campaign were James Fasset, Stanley Williams and Garret Swart, for four-year trustees, and Wendell Hamilton for two-year trustee.

Up to this time there had been no organized opposition to the slate of the candidates chosen by Independent Party No. 1.

Results of the voting are: Independent No. 1, John R. Search, president of board of trustees, 310 votes. Alvin S. Sorensen, village clerk 349. Village trustees, four year term, David H. McMillan, 320; George H. Bills 309; Charles E. Burichard Sr., 310. Village trustee, 2 year term, Lyman F. Teague, 322. John Balaz, police magistrate, 344.

The write-in vote resulted as follows: Roy Kropp, president of the board of trustees, 49; for village trustees, four year term, James A. Fasset, 52; Stanley Williams 42; Gerrit Swart, 42. For village trustee, two year term, Wendell B. Hamilton, 35. For police magistrate none.

On the third ticket, also a write-in, Charles Swanberg received one vote for village president and Morry Larson one vote for police magistrate.

An Open Letter

An open letter to the "Dear Neighbors" of Mokena who received an anonymous letter thru the mail Tuesday morning. What is more stupid than an election postmortem? But here is one—I did put on a telephone campaign. If any others did I do not know it, so I am putting on the shoe because it fits.

While I was using the phone I knew only too well that an interested person was eavesdropping on every call I made. As far as past history is concerned, I have never criticized any member of the outgoing board except the majority leader, and I made every criticism directly to him before I repeated it to any one else. I did not say one detrimental word about any candidate listed on the "blue ballot". The only comment I made on them was that whoever picked that slate was very clever, because those men are among the best liked and most upstanding of any in town, and I mean, I personally admire them and have as long as I have known them.

Proposed Law to Abolish Speed Trap

A proposed law to eliminate "speed trap" methods of traffic enforcement in Illinois has been announced by Chas. M. Hayes, president of the Chicago Motor Club.

"The promotion of highway safety requires effective enforcement," Hayes said, "but this does not necessarily mean wholesale arrests of motorists who may be technically violating a speed limit."

The Motor Club executive stated that too frequently "some police officers assume that their role in the general program of traffic safety promotion is solely to detect and arrest as many violators as possible. These officers do not appreciate that their function is educational as well, and that their presence on highways in full uniform and in plain view serves as a constant reminder of conditions requiring regulation and caution."

"Consequently," he added, the Chicago Motor Club would have

"some officers use speed traps to detect motorists traveling at rates of speed higher than the prima facie speed limits set by statute."

Hayes described speed traps as usually operated by officers who are in hiding or at least not in plain view. Such officers sometimes employ mechanically or electrically operated devices which automatically or semi-automatically compute the speed of a vehicle.

These methods result in the detection, arrest and punishment of motorists who exceed speeds which the officers consider to be the maximum speed permitted, but who are not necessarily driving faster than is reasonable and proper, Hayes continued. "Far more important than the indiscriminate arrest of a relatively few violators is the preventive type of enforcement represented by police officers patrolling the highway, and who, by their presence alone, discourage unsafe driving practices."

The law proposed by the Chicago Motor Club would have the effect of prohibiting so-called "secret service" methods in dealing with speed violators. It would prevent the use as evidence of testimony based upon "speed traps" employed by officers in hiding.

Tinley Gives $660 For Christmas Seals

Tinley Park residents contributed $660.54 in the recent Christmas seal drive for funds to fight TB. It was announced by the Tuberculosis Institute of Chicago and Cook county.

In the 1951 drive Tinley Park contributed $553.05. All suburban communities showed increases over the previous year.

In the whole of Cook county, including Chicago, $662,644.43 was given, "making this, by far, our greatest Christmas seal year in history," Herbert C. De Young, institute president, said.

"We are certainly gratified by the response," De Young said. "We shall work harder in the coming year to justify this increased support."

Six percent will be used by the National TB Association for nationwide activities in medical research and public health education.

Good Feed Insurance

...Regardless of weather

Now you can be sure of year-round, high-quality feed with the Allis-Chalmers Forage Harvester.

Drouths or unusually low temperatures can be costly... reducing your feed supply and forcing the sale of breeding stock or unfinished cattle.

Every year livestock farmers are trusting less to weather and more to the Allis-Chalmers Forage Harvester to supply good forage the year 'round.

The A-C "3-in-1" Forage Harvester may be equipped for cutting grass crops direct, for picking up hay or vine crops from the windrow, or for harvesting row crops. Big yard-wide cylinder has curved blades that both cut and throw. You handle more material with less power. Let us prove it.

Horace Heidt Show Coming to Joliet

The new Horace Heidt show, a scintillating musical with a cast of 50 featuring popular "Hit Parade" tunes plus a special added attraction, A Night at the Circus, is booked by the Joliet Lions club to appear at the Joliet Township High School Auditorium on Sunday, May 10 with afternoon and evening performances. This new big anniversary show is a distinct departure from anything produced heretofore by the master showman, Horace Heidt.

Presented against a background of a big top circus, with clowns and side show attractions, many new faces and entertainers will be seen for the first time in this area with many of the Horace Heidt regulars.

One of the very popular features of the former shows, the youth opportunity is being retained in a modified form and will afford a chance for some deserving talent of Joliet and surrounding territory to audition for an opportunity to appear with Horace Heidt and perhaps go on to future success in the entertainment world. A Horace Heidt representative will be in Joliet May 5 and May 6 to audition talent.

Proceeds from these shows of the Lions club are used for the many Lions Clubs charities, the best known of which is their sight conservation work and their assistance to the local blind association.

Reserved seats are now being sold at the Fowler Piano Company in Joliet and by all Lions Club members.

Amvets Aux. News

The Auxiliary for the Five Point Post 183 held its regular monthly meeting on April 16 in the home of Mrs. Andrew Zink with 19 members present. The meeting was called to order with a prayer by the chaplain. Several committee chairmen made reports concerning the coming carnival.

Our bakery sale was reported a success.

Mrs. Jake Barenz and Mrs. Eli Sushka will be the hostesses at the May meeting to be held in the home of Mrs. Eli Sushka. The 4th district meeting will be held in Champaign May 17. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Tom Everhart and Miss Dolores Koopmann.—Mrs. C. E. Florey, publicity.

Turn Clock Forward One Hour Sat. Nite

Daylight saving goes into effect in this area at 12 o'clock midnight Saturday, April 25. Be sure to turn your clock forward one hour, at or before midnight, so that when you get up Sunday morning you won't be an hour behind the times.

It is always easier to turn the clock forward one hour in April than to turn it forward 11 hours in September, when we set our clocks back one hour. Nevertheless, the process is painful to many who would rather have Central Standard Time the year round.

We will make no attempt here to advance the arguments pro and con for Daylight Saving Time. Just turn your clock or watch forward one hour Saturday night, before midnight, and forget all about it.

Rev. Wm. Riemann To Conduct Radio Devotions for Week

The broadcasts will be from 7 to 7:15, and is sponsored by the Will County Ministers' Association.

ALPINE

Mrs. E. Mrosek
Orland 41-J-1

The Orland Boys 4H club met at Maue school Monday at 8 p. m. Walter Bernard, president, opened the meeting with the pledge of allegiance to the flag. Edward Lee Mrosek gave the secretary and treasurers report. Old and new business was discussed. Darrell Erickson was elected as candidate for King of the 4H fair. Walter Bernard gave a talk on preparing a seed bed for corn. Darrell Erickson talked on farm safety. Walter Reeves and Louis Schmidt gave a first aid demonstration.

The meeting closed with the 4H pledge. Charles Albert and Arthur Maue furnished refreshments.

Maue school children in grades 5-8 are taking subscriptions for magazines. Profits will go into their achievement club fund. Children in grades 1-4 sold seeds as their fund raising project.

At a meeting of the Maue school board Tuesday evening Aaron Simrell was chosen president and Mr. Mrosek clerk, for the coming year.

Aaron Simrell has been confined to his home for a few days because of illness.

Henry Felsch returned home Saturday after five days in the Evangelical hospital in Chicago where he underwent minor surgery. He will convalesce for a week before returning to work.

Mrs. Stuart Culp was hostess recently to a reunion with childhood friends, Mrs. Arthur Godfrey (not the Godfrey of radio fame) and Mrs. Luther Wike, both of Chicago. Mrs. Culp had lost track of her friends after leaving Arnold, Penn. in 1914. A story about Mrs. Culp's sister, Dorothy Moulter, which appeared in the Saturday Evening Post some time ago and the resulting publicity were responsible for bringing about the reunion. Also present were her sister Mrs. Miles Crozier and Mrs. Ralph Swenson, both of Chicago.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Blank attended a birthday supper in honor of their three year old grand daughter, Lucinda Louise Blank, of Chicago Heights last Thursday. Kay and Arthur Maue were also guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Owen Maue visited with her mother, Mrs. Louise Holm of Goodings Grove Sunday.

Cherry and Billie, children of the William Donovans, spent the week end with their grandparents in Chicago. Joan Rush, infant daughter of Corp. and Mrs. Irvin Rush, has been very ill. She seems to be improving. Corp. Rush is stationed at Camp Pendleton, Cal. and has never seen his daughter.

Mr. and Mrs. John Janulis returned home Friday from a vacation spent in Pensacola, Fla.

Mrs. Herb Schumacher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Show, returned by plane from a vacation recently in Calif. Her husband is stationed at Sacramento, Calif.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Show and son Cliff returned recently from Stranquist, Minn., where they had been called by the death of his 87 year old father.

Ronald Fandrey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fandrey, was confined to his home for a few days last week because of illness. It is believed that an allergy was the cause.

"Kay Maue took her lamb to school one day, last week. And all the children gathered round to take a peek. If teacher listened she might have heard some speculate, "Wonder what that lamb will weigh by 4H fair date?"

Alpine 4H News
The Alpine girls met at Mrs. Harwood Stellwagen's Monday night. Carol Moliter, president, opened the meeting with the flag salute. Rosemary Dempsy was secretary because Charlotte Alberts was vacationing.

BABSON SAYS—

Copyright, 1953, Publishers Financial Bureau, Inc. Babson Discusses Your Business and Your Schools

Babson Park, Mass. Apr. 23. The Dean of a city university recently said that he could teach a class of 600 as well as 16. He taught them, but I doubt how well! The students were exposed to a public address system with movies and lectures, but never did they get a chance like Mark Hopkins's students, to "sit on the other end of the log and know their teacher." The Dean "short-changed" those students.

Emphasis on What?—Maybe I'm old fashioned but I think the purpose of education, in addition to giving a man the tools of language and arithmetic, is to teach him to think and pray. Quite frequently I have the chance to talk with young people who are applying for jobs. Often I ask them what kind of work they want, what they think they can do on a job, and why they think they can do it better than the next fellow.

Such simple questions usually stump the average high school and college job hunters. They know little about the world of work. They have never appraised themselves to know their job strengths and weaknesses. So I turn to something I think they do know. I ask a simple arithmetical question. I find they can't even figure compound interest!

College Graduates Often Ignorant—I try to discuss a little current events and I find they have no adequate historical knowledge to hang events upon. I turn to economics, as my Professor Stephens did with a college senior the other day. He asked the student if he could give some reasons why business had a bad reputation in the minds of some people. Why? do you suppose was the answer?

"People think the average business is out to gyp them. Prices are too high. Business needs to learn how to mass-produce more and waste less of advertising so that prices will become lower." He hadn't heard about the problem of over-production, nor could he explain the great advantages of advertising. If this is the end-product of modern education, then let's do something about it in a hurry.

What's Wrong in Education?—There is something frightening about the ineffectiveness of current educational procedures. Too much emphasis is placed on the "degree" aspects of education. Too little thought is given to the needs of the inner man. Look about your own city or town and note what you see.

Communities call in specialists to survey their educational needs. A grand new steel and concrete school building is recommended, functional in every respect. They want "the best for their children," they say. Never mind whether the people can pay for it or not. A modern, one-story structure doesn't need to be built like a bomb-proof bank vault.

Teachers Should Be Paid More—They forget that educational theory and practice change and that their expensive rockpile will be outmoded long before it is outworn and probably before it is paid for! When they get the school built, they can all point with pride to the building. But then, there is little money left to pay a decent salary to attract good teachers to that school. I wonder if we haven't lost our perspective.

If America is to stay young and if American business is to grow and prosper, it needs intelligent and praying teachers. Low salaries—you know, too well—don't buy competent workers for you; they don't buy competent teachers either. You are paying, through taxation or rent part of the education bill. What are you doing to see that your community is putting the emphasis where it belongs?

Elections Coming Up—Hundreds of cities and towns have, during the last few years strapped themselves financially with luxury school buildings which they cannot afford. This ends for a good long time, the possibility of paying good teachers enough to keep them on the job or to get other really good instructors to take their places. City elections will come this fall. In many cases there will be special referenda on education. When voting, remember bricks and mortar don't make a school.

Miss Janet Korsgaard received emergency treatment at Hedges Clinic Saturday when she injured her arm in an accident at her home. Fortunately her injuries were not serious enough to prevent her attending a ballet performance in Chicago Sunday with Mrs. Helen Madden and daughter Elizabeth.

A TIME TO LOOK BACK

A TIME TO LOOK AHEAD!

From our first savings account holder in 1911 to a "Landmark for Savings" in 1953...Harvey Federal Savings and Loan has continuously served you and your neighbors.

LOOKING BACK—1911 TO 1953

Harvey Federal Savings was founded in March of 1911—by the end of the year, assets totalled $3,482.57. Four years later when Harvey, Illinois celebrated its 25th anniversary, there was a total of $28,409.70 in assets. John Bardwick, Jr., President of Harvey Federal Savings today, joined the Association as the Managing Officer on January 1, 1930. Four years later under Mr. Bardwick's management, Harvey Federal Savings was granted Federal Charter No. 369 and its accounts received FSLIC insurance. By Harvey Federal's 25th anniversary in 1936, $944,327.66 was on deposit in savings and investment accounts. Thus, through all its 42 years of service, Harvey Federal Savings has continuously grown to meet the needs of the community.

LOOKING AHEAD—

Today, Harvey Federal Savings has 10,516 depositors whose savings accounts total an all-time high of $7,776,961.02. And these savings and investment accounts are now earning the highest dividends in years. Last year alone, $144,835.01 was paid out in dividends. As we think of tomorrow, we at Harvey Federal Savings and Loan plan for consistent expansion, always providing friendly financial service through the promotion of thrift and home ownership.

DISC HARROWS WILL NOT GOUGE IN ON THE TURNS!

MM model 11A disc harrow turns in as small a radius as any row-crop tractor. Tension springs hold the gangs in a level position so that the harrow penetrates at a uniform depth over its full width. With this construction the harrow is flexible for good work on uneven ground, and one side or the other does not dig in on turns.

Ease of angling is another outstanding feature. A touch on MM's new hydraulic control, called Uni-disc angle on the go a simple matter.

with bolero jackets to match, also matching gauntlets, pleated nylon net cloche headpieces to match and a cascade of talisman roses with talisman colored ribbon and streamers.
Miss Jean Ann Heisner, cousin of the bride, was flower girl. She was attired as a miniature bride, her gown being nearly identical to the bride's, with a white lace bodice, an illusion neckline, puffed sleeves, full floor length chapel tulle skirt, gauntlets to match bodice, buttoned down the back and headpiece of red rose buds. She carried a basket of rose petals, which she dropped on the carpet for the bride.
Ring bearer was Paul Groth, cousin of the groom. He carried the ring on a heart-shaped white satin pillow.

Best man was Charles Hecht, brother of the groom and Ushers were Richard Schellhase and Donald Cappel.

The bride's mother wore navy blue crepe with pink accessories, and hat to match, and a white carnation corsage.

The groom's mother wore navy blue crepe with white accessories, with hat to match white carnation corsage.
A reception in the church basement followed the ceremony. About 200 guests were present. A three tier wedding cake centered the bride's table surrounded by flowers with double candelabra. There was also a two tier wedding cake in honor of the bride's parents, whose 31st wedding anniversary also fell on this nuptial date. By a triple coincidence, the bride's father's birthday anniversary also fell on April 12, Mrs. Marjorie Laurie, sister of the bride was in charge of the guest book and Mrs. Gladys Huenenberg, cousin of the bride, cut the wedding cake.

Out of town guests were from Chicago, Joliet, Blue Island, Chicago Heights, Monee, Beecher, Tinley Park, New Lenox, Lockport and from Indiana and Ohio.

The bride is a graduate of Joliet Township high school, and the groom is with the U. S. Air Force. The newlyweds left on a honeymoon through the Western states.

her with a gift. Mrs. McMillan, the new president, thanked the members of the Auxiliary for the honor of being elected their leader and requested their co-operation and help.

Mrs. Margaret Semmler, publisher of the News-Bulletin, who was escorted to the platform was honored with a gift and corsage in appreciation of the fine publicity she has always given the Auxiliary. Recognition was also given Mrs. W. H. Pittman of the Herald-News, who was not present, for her fine coverage of Auxiliary activities.

Following a 10-minute recess, the officers of the Post were installed, with Adam Schneider as Officer of the Day. Don Neal, past commander of the Wm. Martin Post, was the installing officer. The outgoing Commander, Earl Moss, thanked all the members for their help, after which the gavel was presented to the new Commander, Arthur Hurley. Mrs. Semmler was asked to stand and was given a vote of thanks for her complete coverage of VFW news.

Present at this function were VFW representatives from the South Suburban Post, Elmwood Park, Chicago, Kankakee, Tinley Park, Elmhurst, Lockport and the Amvet Post of Mokena.

After the installation, all guests were invited to the dining room where an excellent dinner was served.

Twenty year pins were given to Glenn Peterson, Fred Steinhagen, William Myrick and John McGovern, and also to Fred Hentsch, Alfred Hatch and Wright Woods who were absent. Ten year pins were given to William Schuldt and Russell Stankus.

LAUNCH DRIVE FOR—

continued growth, it is apparent that ample provision must be made for a larger and more adequate structure to insure a good Christian education for children of the parish.

Based on a current parish census, it has been estimated that through the provision of some additional desks, satisfactory arrangements can probably be made to handle all students for the next two years.

A goal of $15,000 has been set for the first year of a two-year campaign for funds. The accumulation of a substantial amount of money will, at the end of two years, warrant presentation of actual building plans, a fine school building and, facilities, with room for church services. In years to come, it would be possible to build a church.

Father Frietger called upon all to see what sacrifices they could make for themselves, their children, their community, and, in a small way, for the nation. A united effort on the part of the parish to obtain a new school for St. Mary's will result in a creditable plant and enable the parishioners more readily to take part in affairs of the community.

He extended wishes of good luck and the blessing of God on all.

The honor of being the initial fund contributors went to Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence of Mokena, who were present as well-wishers of St. Mary's.

Josephine Bernadin, entertainment chairman, presented Mrs. Jean Brooks of Chicago Heights who gave a number of accordion selections; Regina Stanger, age 8, Mokena, gave two lively tap dances accompanied on the piano by John Marcec, Mokena; Jerry Olson, Chicago played four selections on the marimba.

Mrs. Leo Marcoux was awarded a pair of hurricane lamps. There were also dolls and lamp booths with attractive prizes. Refreshments were served and it was the consensus of opinion that the St. Mary's School building fund kick-off was a most successful and enjoyable affair.

Mokena WSCS to Give Potluck Supper

A potluck supper will be sponsored by Group one of the Women's Society for Christian Service of the Mokena Methodist church, Saturday, May 2. It will be held in the Cooper and Hostert garage, starting at 6:30 pm. All members of the Society of the church and their friends, are cordially invited to attend. Each is to bring a covered dish and their own table service. Coffee will be served, and pop for the children.

Following the supper, a social fellowship evening will be enjoyed during which a silent auction will be held. There will be at that time a fish pond for the children.

Mrs. Hugo Neithammer is chairman of Group One.

THE BIBLE SPEAKS

International Uniform Sunday School Lessons

BY DR. KENNETH J. FOREMAN

Scripture: Acts 15:36-18:22
Devotional Reading: Psalm 61.

A Saint
Lesson for April 26, 1953

A SAINT: what picture does that word call up? A haggard figure in a loud-colored robe, sitting in a stained glass window? A hermit in a lonely cell, praying incessantly to God? All wrong. Saints have pretty stormy lives, as a matter of fact, and it often happens that the people who boarded with them did not realize they were saints at the time. Our famed St. Paul is no exception. He was, as we remember, a missionary; and missionaries have their troubles. They are something like salesmen; and like most salesmen, they are not selling in a vacuum. They are selling against some pretty keen opposition and competition. The story of Paul's work is like a series of fights.

Dr. Foreman
Indeed at the end of his life he summed it all up by saying, "I have fought the good fight."

Big Cities Are Bad

Paul was up against it all the time, one way or another. A good sample of the sort of thing that made his work hard was his stay in Corinth, not to mention his troubles with the Corinthians ever after. Corinth was one of the great cities of the Roman Empire at that time. It was a transfer point for cargoes bound from the east to the empire's capital, Rome. It was a center for professional athletes. Everybody in the place had the idea of getting rich as fast as possible. It was not noted for culture or for religion or morals. Indeed it was so bad that its morals would make a Roman policeman blush. When Paul wrote Roman 1 he was living in Corinth, and the horrible picture he draws is no more than he could see, so to speak, looking out of his window. Now big cities contain much good. They are the centers of world-wide Christian activities, in many cases today. But big cities are bad too, as everybody knows, and for much the same reason that Corinth was bad. The one god worshipped there, by the majority of its citizens, is Mammon, Money. Why do people crowd into big cities? Most of them are there, directly or indirectly, because they hope to make money faster than they could back home. What chance has the gospel of love in such a place? A real chance; but it has to fight.

Half-Religion

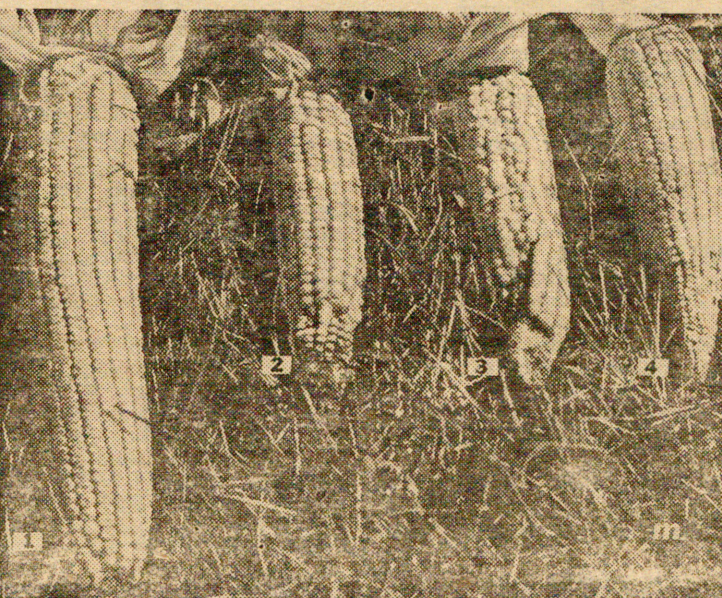

Paul stuck to cities for his missionary work because he was, after all, a city man and understood city people. But still it was a fight. Besides the indifference of people who cared for no god but themselves, there was bitter opposition from people who already had a religion, and a right good one. Paul suffered sharper attacks from the Jews than he ever did from downright pagans. People who already have something good are more likely to be fanatical against what is better than are people who have nothing. For instance, nowadays the great new revision of the Bible is getting more bitter opposition from people who have a good but old translation—the King James—than from people who don't have Bible at all.

Highbrows

In Acts 17 there is told at some length what is only hinted at in Acts 18—the kind of trouble Paul had with the Greeks. In dealing with Greeks he was up against the true highbrows of his time. The Jew had a very practical mind; but the Greek mind was always worrying with very difficult questions, to which the answers have not all been given even down to this present day. Paul had to argue with these people—he couldn't just knock them over the head with Bible texts; the Greek mind didn't bash in easily. And Paul won some of them. Indeed he was more successful with them than he was with his own people, somewhat to his own astonishment. But that is one hurdle that Christianity meets everywhere: the opposition of people who want to have all their questions answered before they will consent to believe. There is surely nothing wrong in having a bright mind, and nothing at all wrong in having the best education one can absorb. But any person who insists on God's explaining himself to him before he, the man, will give his heart to God, is demanding the wrong thing. God's grace is for the humble.

High Soil Fertility Needed for Bumper Crop Yields, Extra Profits and Low Bushel Cost

1—High yielding, fully developed ear got well balanced feed of nitrogen, phosphate and potash fertilizer. 2—Unfinished nubbin lacked sufficient nitrogen. 3—Phosphate-starved ear. 4—Chaffy, undermatured ear needed potash.

MAKING money growing corn these days depends on how many bushels per acre you get. High yields mean high profits. Low yields mean low profits or possible loss.

The main key to high yields is high soil fertility. Agronomists recently reported that fixed production costs on any corn field, high or low yielding, averaged $31.66 per acre. That was true on fields yielding 48 bushels per acre and on fields averaging 106 bushels per acre. Such costs include plowing, planting, cultivation, interest, depreciation on buildings and machinery and other expenses.

The cost of the seed, fertilizer, picking and interest needed to make 48 bushels per acre boosted the total cost to $42.48—an average of 88 cents per bushel. With corn at $1.50 per bushel the 48 bushels gave a gross return of $72 and a net profit of $29.52 per acre.

But to make 106 bushels per acre the variable costs averaged $44.58, including $34.74 spent for fertilizer. This boosted the total cost to $76.24 per acre, but the cost per bushel dropped to 77 cents. The gross return increased to $162 which left the farmer with a net profit of $82.76. This was nearly three times the profit per acre from the 48-bushel yield.

The use of fertilizer meant the difference in profits.

Other vital factors affecting yield are good till and soil structure, drainage and a stalk population sufficient to make use of all the nutrients available in the soil. If the soil cannot provide the nutrients in balanced supply, they can be added in the form of commercial fertilizer carrying nitrogen, phosphate and potash.

Yields of 100 and more bushels per acre are possible even in severe droughts, when the crop is well fertilized and has a large enough stalk population. That was demonstrated by agronomists in drought-stricken Missouri last year. County agents throughout the state reported that farmers who reached the 100-bushel corn goal, fertilized on the basis of soil tests and planted their corn at the proper rate.

Wheat Yields Climb, Winter Killing Cut When Soil Gets Balanced Nutrient Supply

FARMERS often ask, "What's wrong with my wheat?" when they notice thin, ragged, uneven stands struggling to get started in the spring.

This winter killing of wheat is often due to low soil fertility and a lack of nutrient balance.

Untillitized wheat roots (left) died from winterkilling. Well fed roots (right) are thick to a 9-inch depth, with vigorous topgrowth.

according to University of Illinois soils specialists.

Since top growth depends on a good root system, these agronomists studied wheat roots in the spring of 1952 on clay pan soils at three experiment fields in Southern Illinois. They found that winter survival was best and wheat yields were highest on plots fertilized with lime, nitrogen, phosphate and potash. A deficiency of these nutrients meant dead roots on April 1 and a total crop loss that year.

At one field, wheat yields averaged 30.1 bushels per acre on plots receiving lime, nitrogen, phosphate and potash. The four-year average yield on these plots was 33.6 bushels. Unfertilized plots gave no yield whatever in 1952. Their four-year average was 3.4 bushels per acre.

About April 1, roots from plots getting a fully balanced feed of nutrients were thick and sturdy to a depth of nine inches. Topgrowth was vigorous. Roots from unfertilized plots were straggly and dead, with practically no topgrowth.

Leaving out one nutrient cut down winter survival and reduced the grain yield. Yields averaged only 7.3 bushels per acre on plots that had no lime, but received nitrogen, phosphate and potash. The four-year yield average on these plots was 13.7 bushels. With no phosphate, yields averaged 6.7 bushels for 1952 and 12.9 for the four years. With no potash, yields were 14.2 and 23.6 bushels per acre, respectively; and without nitrogen in the fertilizer, yields averaged 18.5 bushels for 1952 and 23.4 bushels for the four year period.

Sue Challenging Validity of Mosquito District

(CNS) A suit challenging the validity of an election held Nov. 4, 1952, in which the South Cook County Mosquito Abatement district was formed, was filed Monday, April 13, in Circuit court.

John F. Tyrell, an attorney for persons who objected to the formation of the district, filed the suit.

Eleven persons, seven from Harvey two from East Hazel Crest, and one from Homewood and Hazel Crest, are plaintiffs in the suit.

They are Clarence J. Bell, 138 E. 155th St., Ralph W. Hale, 16501 Halsted st., Raymond L. Jenkins, 15029 Loomis st., William H. Hammer, 36 E. 155th st., Raymond J. Widling, 15306 Myrtle st., Iva V. Millor, 155 E. 154th st., and August R. Anderson, 27 E. 151st st., all of Harvey; Eula Bell Meder, 1310 W. 172nd st., and Mary Mokos, 1025 W. 171st st., East Hazel Crest; Arnold O. Evers, 18001 Homewood ave., and Beulah Chittenden, 16937 Anthony st., Hazel Crest.

The lengthy 32 page suit contains 37 allegations. The suit asks that five actions be taken by the court. They are:

1. That a true and correct count of the ballots be held.
2. That the proclamation of a vote canvas by County Judge Edmund K. Jarecki be declared null and void.

3. That the court declare the mosquito district issue defeated or declare the election null and void.

4. That all ballots and other election materials be impounded by the court.

5. That all officials of the mosquito district be required to appear in court when the suit is tried.

The suit alleges that 50,000 illegal ballots were tallied in favor of forming the district and that numerous mistakes in counting were made by the election judges and clerks.

In addition, the suit alleges that Judge Jarecki did not appoint two judges for each of the polling places, that he did not establish one or more polling places to vote on the issue, and that the boundaries of the mosquito district set by Judge Jarecki were larger than requested in the petition filed with him.

Also mentioned in the suit is the length of time taken to reach a decision on whether the district was formed. On March 12, 1953, more than four months after the election, Judge Jarecki ruled that the issue had carried. The officials count was 140,976 votes in favor of the district and 86,383 against.

The mosquito district taken in all of Cook county south of 87th street, including the townships of Bloom, Rich Thornton, Lemont, Worth, Palos, Bremen, Orland and Calumet. Also included are the ninth ward of Chicago and parts of the 10th and 19th wards.

That Ten Billion Dollar Reduction—During the campaign last fall both Senator Taft and Candidate Ike promised a $10 billion cut in Federal expenditures "the first year". Can the promise be kept? If so, where can the cuts be made without crippling our national defense? The cuts can be made as follows:

1. Congress has been appropriating about $50 billion a year for national defense. Our best authorities claim that from 10 to 50 percent of that amount is wasted by inefficiency and extravagance. Certainly at least 10 percent can be saved—which would mean a cut of $5 billion in this item, without weakening our national defense.

2. Congress has been appropriating $7.5 billion a year for foreign aid. This can and should be cut in half. This would save nearly $4 billion on this item.

3. Congress appropriates between 9 and 10 billion dollars a year for the salaries of the 2½ million civilian Federal employees. (Fifteen years ago there were only 700,000 Federal employees, getting $1.5 billion a year.) For ten years Senator Byrd has been saying our federal payroll can be cut in half and we can get better work done and more work done after getting rid of the dead timber on that payroll. The Hoover Commission reported about the same thing. If the federal payroll were cut only 20%, it would save $2 billion per year on this item.

$5 billion saved on national defense, $4 billion on foreign aid, and $2 billion on our over-padded federal payroll add up to $11 billion on those three items alone, and no harm done to our national defense.

Our Unexpended Balances—Each year Congress has been appropriating more billions than the Federal departments have been able to spend. As a result we have $100 billion of unexpended balances on hand, a large part of which has been neither obligated nor contracted for. If these unexpended balances were taken into account when Congress makes its new appropriations, at least $20 billion could be cut from the new budget requests.

For example: Forty billion dollars of these unexpended balances are in the national defense fund. That is the amount the Pentagon Brass asked for—and the Congress appropriated—in excess of what the Pentagon Brass has been able to spend.

The army chiefs of staff say the yearly ceiling on defense spending and defense contracts under present industrial defense production capacity is $60 billion. The Pentagon Brass are asking for $50 billion for national defense this year. If $20 billion were cut from their new budget request and Congress appropriated only $30 billion they would still have $70 billion to spend this next year ($40 billion unexpended balance plus $30 billion new appropriation) which would still be $10 billion more than they say they can spend. Would that weaken our defense effort? Of course not.

Why keep on appropriating more than the departments can spend simply because they ask for it? Why pile up appropriated billions in unexpended balances to encourage waste, inefficiency and extravagance in government? Is it good business practice? Could any private business operate that way and expect to succeed? From the angle of these billions of unexpended balances alone, the Congress could easily cut budget requests by $20 billion for this coming budget year.

The Federal Tax Take—This year's Federal "tax take" will amount to $68.7 billion. From corporations $21.5 billion, from individuals $32.0 billion, from excise taxes $10.0 billion. From employment taxes (Social Security and unemployment compensation) $5.2 billion.
